

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS, CONT'D

SUNDAY, AUGUST 21ST

POSTING OF COLORS

(9:00 am at the Blacksmith Shop flagpole)

The units will post colors, and drill.

HISTORIC FIELD CHURCH SERVICE

(9:10 am in the Union Encampment)

An historic recreation of a typical battlefield church service will be held in the Union Encampment. If raining, it will be in the Blacksmith Shop.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

(10:00 am at the Cemetery)

During the dedication of the first National Cemetery at Gettysburg in 1863, President Lincoln was asked, almost as an afterthought, to deliver "a few appropriate remarks." In less than two minutes, Lincoln captured the essence of the conflict, and what it meant to the nation, and to the nation's future. Join us as Ralph Lincoln brings to life Abe's famous speech.

THE BATTLE OF GREENWOOD FURNACE

(1:00 pm begins at the Ballfield)

Johnny Reb surprised Billy Yank yesterday as the gray coats attacked our boys in blue in this raid of Central Pennsylvania. Will the Confederates ultimately be successful, or will they be repelled back across the Mason-Dixon by the Union forces stationed at Greenwood Furnace! Stop by and find out!

DRUMHEAD TRIAL

(2:15 pm (time approximate)— Location to be announced as part of the end of the battle)

A spy has been caught among the units! Is he, or she, a reb spy, or a union patriot?

RETIRING OF COLORS

(Immediately following the drumhead at the flagpole)

The units will retire colors, and drill, to bring Old Home Days to a conclusion.

RE-ENACTOR GROUPS

Scheduled to Participate. Other groups may also attend. Stop by and chat with the Civil War Re-enactors in their two encampments.

UNION UNITS

- Battery B, 3rd Pa. Vol. Artillery (bases in Boalsburg)
- 125th Pa Volunteer Infantry (based in Huntingdon)
- 148th Regiment, Co. B, PA Field Hospital (based in Lewistown)
- 148th PA Volunteer Infantry, Co. C. (based in State College)
- 42nd and 149th PA. Vol. Infantry "Bucktails" (based in Elk Co)

CONFEDERATE UNITS

- 5th Texas Infantry (based in Juniata Co)
- 13th Virginia Infantry Co. H (based in Altoona)
- 55th Virginia Cavalry

OTHER PARTICIPANTS

- Sons of the Union Veterans of the Civil War, Col. James Crowthers Camp #89 (based in Tyrone)
- Gen. Ulysses S. Grant (Walt Marr)

SPECIAL GUEST

Ralph Lincoln, an 11th generation descendant

We welcome the return appearance of President Abraham Lincoln, played by Ralph Lincoln, a well-known Lincoln presenter and actual third cousin descendant of "Honest Abe." He not only brings to life one of our greatest and most revered presidents, but also adds the touch of personality from his family that helped shape American history.

